INDUSTRY ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
For individuals and organizations that wish to support our diverse pipeline of talented students in computing and engineering majors.
Category*	Description	Opportunities	Contact
Individual Donor	Individual who makes a financial gift (one time or recurring) to support students and/or programs.	● Individual scholarships ● Travel awards to conferences ● Fund specific initiatives (aligned with donor's interest/priority)	Susie Lynch Development Officer Office of Institutional Advancement slynch@umbc.edu https://giving.umbc.edu/
Corporate Partner	Corporate organization that makes a financial gift (one time or recurring) to support students and/or programs.	● Individual or cohort scholarships ● Travel awards to conferences ● Fund signature programs and customized events	Syntyche Walker Associate Director of Corporate Partnerships Office of Institutional Advancement syntyche@umbc.edu
Professional Volunteer	Individual with professional experience in a computing, information or engineering field.	● Mentor a Scholar ● Participate in networking events ● Speak at an event as keynote or on a panel	Danyelle T. Ireland Associate Director Center for Women in Technology direland@umbc.edu https://cwit.umbc.edu/industry/
Recruitment	Employers (including Human Resources professionals) who wish to participate in UMBC career fairs and other scheduled activities to reach students for recruitment purposes.		Sue Plitt Associate Director Employer Relations & Recruitment Programs Career Center plitt@umbc.edu
Industry partners can engage with CWIT in any combination of the above categories. For example, an employee of a corporate partner may attend a CWIT event as an industry professional volunteer and also make an individual gift as an individual donor to support a particular student or initiative.*

Updated 11/6/2020